Dear Harold:

In going through the material in my dispatch case to make sure that everything that had to be done was being done before I leave for my vacation on August 8, during which time I will go to Greece and Italy and be back about September 10, I came across the material you had given me.

As I recall it, we had left matters in status quo until you will let me know publication plans on your book. Has anything developed? Please write me at my home, 395 Ocean Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11226, telling me what the situation is so that I can know what further steps I should take when I return from Europe.

I hope everything is going well with you and Lil and that your income crisis has been solved. Frieda and Nancy send their regards.

Sincerely,

SR:mr
